This page shows the polling place associated with the residential address provided on the previous screen. Locating a polling place for your residential address does NOT necessarily indicate that you are a registered voter at that polling place. To determine whether you are a registered voter, you must log in to the portal. To do so, click the Login link in the left menu and follow the prompts. You may also contact your county voter registration office to verify your voter registration status and obtain your polling place location.
